

Intermedium's Online Resources for Government

Complimentary to Government

All government personnel (ie anyone with a '.gov.au' email address) can access Intermedium's Knowledge Base and Executive Insight for free.

These complimentary products provide users with:

- Daily research articles and monthly In Focus pieces from our analysts
- Quarterly summaries of Australian public sector ICT activity in the Executive Insight
- Daily tender and article alerts

Government Essential & Premium Packages

Intermedium has two packages to suit personnel with a responsibility for procuring ICT. These are available on an enterprise licence basis (ie. to all staff in your agency). Both packages include Knowledge Base and Executive Insight products which are made available to government personnel on a complimentary basis.

For more information on what might suit you best, go to www.intermedium.com.au and review the information under the 'Government' tab in the navigation bar. You can set up your own online account at the 'register' link on the home page.

If you need help registering, want to enquire about registering a team of people, or would like to organise a familiarisation session, please contact accountsupport@intermedium.com.au or contact Nikki Winmill on (02) 9955 9896.

Government Essential

The Government Essential Package provides your agency with data and tools to leverage procurement with other agencies (piggy-backing); to get the most out of co-ordinated procurement arrangements, and to provide comprehensive information on ICT providers who have contracted with a government agency anywhere in Australia. It is suited both to agencies with ICT policy responsibilities and those who wish to liaise with agencies in other jurisdictions.

Government Premium

The Government Premium Package provides all the features of the Government Essentials Package, but in addition provides two Federal Government 'deep dive' analysis tools.
